Changi Education Centre 1942-1945

The AIF Con. Depot Selerang Barracks, POW Camp Changi, 1942 Leslie Greener

This was the location of the AIF Education Centre established at the instigation of Brig. H. B. Taylor. It was painted in the camp by Captain H.L. Greener, Intelligence Officer, HQ 8th Div. The centre opened within days of the 8th Division entering captivity as prisoners of war of the Japanese

Its aim was to provide all ranks with the opportunity to study and derive benefits from adversity. Under these Casuarina trees men lay listening to the weekly concerts of recorded classical music presented by George McNeilly, a YMCA officer, who made a great contribution to the Camp's life.

A limited reproduction was made and proceeds from its sale went to the AIF

Malayan Nursing Scholarship Fund which is still being maintained as the official war memorial of the A.I.F. Malaya "dedicated to those who served with the 2nd AIF Malaya and did not return".
